

NUMBER 9. WHAT HISTORY FOR WHAT FUTURE OF THE EU?

Organisation:	University of Leuven
PROJECT TITLE:	WHAT HISTORY FOR WHAT FUTURE OF THE EU? How to deal with troubled pasts in order to build a future for the EU, to make a cohesive, workable EU possible?
Call topics of interest (choose from the list):	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • SC6- CULT-COOP-02-2017: Improving mutual understanding among Europeans by working through troubled pasts
Submission deadline:	02 February 2017
Short description of project idea:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Building an understanding of how school subject curricula deal with troubled pasts (national-religious-community), and how they connect these to the EU-background - Building an understanding young people's historical narratives about troubled pasts and how these are connected to specific characteristics and opinions (socio-economic, identity-related...) - Bring young people to interaction, discussion and dialogue, leading them towards a more shared narrative, with a view to make young people from different backgrounds understand each other in order to establish social cohesion and harmonious co-existence.
Main objectives	Bring young people to interaction, discussion and dialogue, leading them towards a more shared narrative, with a view to make young people from different backgrounds understand each other in order to establish social cohesion and harmonious co-existence.
Expected impact of the project (see call text)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Building of an interactive and dynamic website - Policy advice report with recommendations - Teaching materials - Teaching strategies (narrative didactics) - bi-annual kind of newspaper/magazine - conferences, both for researchers and for a 'lay audience' - intervention study with pre- and posttest design + control group - PhD's and scientific papers
Profile of partners sought and expected role in the proposal:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Experience in intercultural dialogue among young people - Experience in peace and reconciliation strategies in concrete educational settings - Experience in effect measurement of several educational strategies - Connections with organizations working with young people, citizenship...
Specific countries/regions/cities you are keen to collaborate with:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Eastern Europe - Southern Europe - Balkan region
Previous, relevant EU / non-EU project experience:	Project Name : Colonisation and Decolonisation in National History Cultures and Memory Politics in European Perspective Website : https://www.uni-siegen.de/codec-eu/